Davin Fenix seeks to hold the defendants liable for violations of his civil rig	thts pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The magistrate judge screened Plaintiff's amended complaint	pursuant to 28
19 U.S.C. § 1915A(a), and found Plaintiff states a cognizable claim for failure to prote	ct against Defendants Miller, Cassering, and Soto. (Doc. 19 at 3-4.) However, the magistrate	judge found Plaintiff failed to state a claim against Governor Newsom and Associate Warden W	addle, because he sought to hold them liable based upon their supervisory roles and did no	ot show they
"were personally involved in or had specific knowledge of Plaintiff's transfer from	HDSP to NKSP or the subsequent attack on him." (Id. at 4-5.) The magistrate judge found le	eave to amend was futile as to these defendants because Plaintiff "failed to provide factual allegation was futile as to these defendants because Plaintiff "failed to provide factual allegation was futile as to these defendants because Plaintiff "failed to provide factual allegation was futile as to these defendants because Plaintiff "failed to provide factual allegation was futile as to these defendants because Plaintiff "failed to provide factual allegation was futile as to these defendants because Plaintiff "failed to provide factual allegation was futile as to these defendants because Plaintiff "failed to provide factual allegation was futile as to the provide factual allegation was futile as to the provide factual allegation was futile as t	ons to give rise to a claim for relief even after leave to amend." (Id. at 5.) Therefore, the ma	agistrate judge recommended the claim raised against Newsom and Waddle be dismissed, and the a	action proceed only against Miller, Cassering, and Soto. (Id.)

Case 1:24-cv-00202-JLT-SAB Document 24 Filed 06/05/24 Page 2 of 2

Plaintiff filed timely objections to the Findings and Recommendations, asserting that Governor Newsom and Associate Warden Waddle should not be dismissed as defendants. (Doc.
20 at 3.) Plaintiff asserts these defendants "are liable because they created policies that violate safety and disregarded a []substantial risk of harm to Plaintiff." (Id. at 3.) However, Plaintiff does not allege any facts—as the magistrate judge observed—supporting a conclusion these defendants were aware of a substantial risk of harm to Plaintiff related to his transfer between facilities, or the attack upon that occurred after the transfer. Without such allegations, Plaintiff is unable to state a claim against Newsom and Waddle. As the magistrate judge observed, "[v]ague and conclusory allegations concerning the involvement of supervisory personnel in civil rights violations are not sufficient." (Id. at 5, citing Ivey v. Board of Regents, 673 F.2d 266, 268 (9th Cir. 1982).)
According to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), this Court performed a de novo review of this case.
